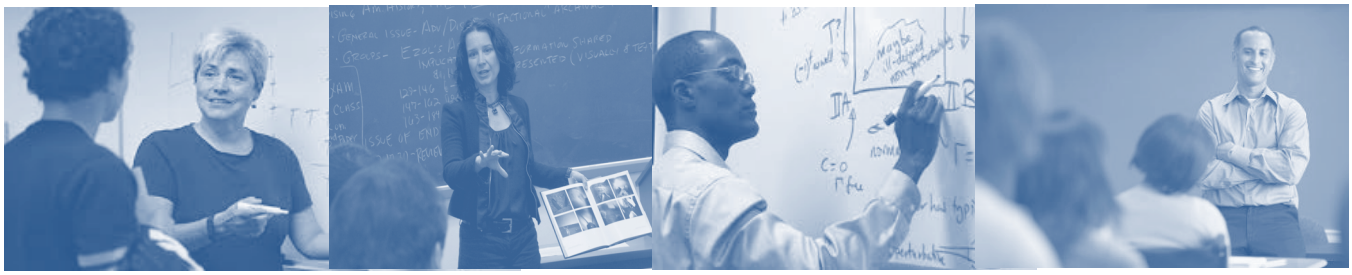
NEIU Faculty Senate
Instructors' Voice Committee

We want to hear your voice.



The Instructors' Voice Committee of the NIEU Faculty Senate cordially invites you to attend a focus group session regarding the role of Instructors at NEIU.

The purpose of this focus group is to explore Instructors' roles at our institution. We will gather information about issues of concern to you and explore ways the NEIU Faculty Senate may address your needs.

Topics to be discussed in this one-hour format include:

- The perception of your role as an Instructor
- Relationships between Instructors and other NEIU constituencies
- Necessary elements for effectively supporting your work
- Barriers to your success as an Instructor at NEIU

Please join us on either Tuesday, April 14 or Wednesday, April 15 2015
3:00 – 4:00p in Library (LIB) 310.

RSVP to:
neiu.instructor.voice@gmail.com

Light refreshments will be served.
Your registration for and participation in this event are strictly confidential.

Every Instructor deserves an optimal working environment.
Every Instructor deserves a voice.
